Ref. No.-NITJSR/ACD/2020/

Date: 12/05/2020

NOTICE

It is inform to one and all that yesterday there were some technical glitches because of which some students could not submit their test report of online mid semester examination.

We were hopeful as the demo tests were successful. During examination also we were able to record responses for two batches successfully; however all were not able to submit due to random error.

We are fully aware of it and records are available with us. Students should not worry and need not to send communication/mails related to it.

The MIS is trying hard to overcome the technical snag and they have requested for a few days to resolve the issue. Meanwhile alternate arrangement is being also explored. Full team of technical staff and institute officials are working on it day and night.

In light of this unexpected technical issue, the examinations are postponed by a week and now it will be held from 18/05/2020. The examinations which could not be successfully conducted will also be rescheduled.
